

Source: PRIDE Survey

What the numbers and other information told us:

76.6% of youth have never thought of committing suicide, a small decrease from 2005 by 1%.

The youth report shows an increase in students who have thought about committing suicide in Seldom (by 0.5%), Sometimes (by 0.6%) and in A Lot (by 0.1%).

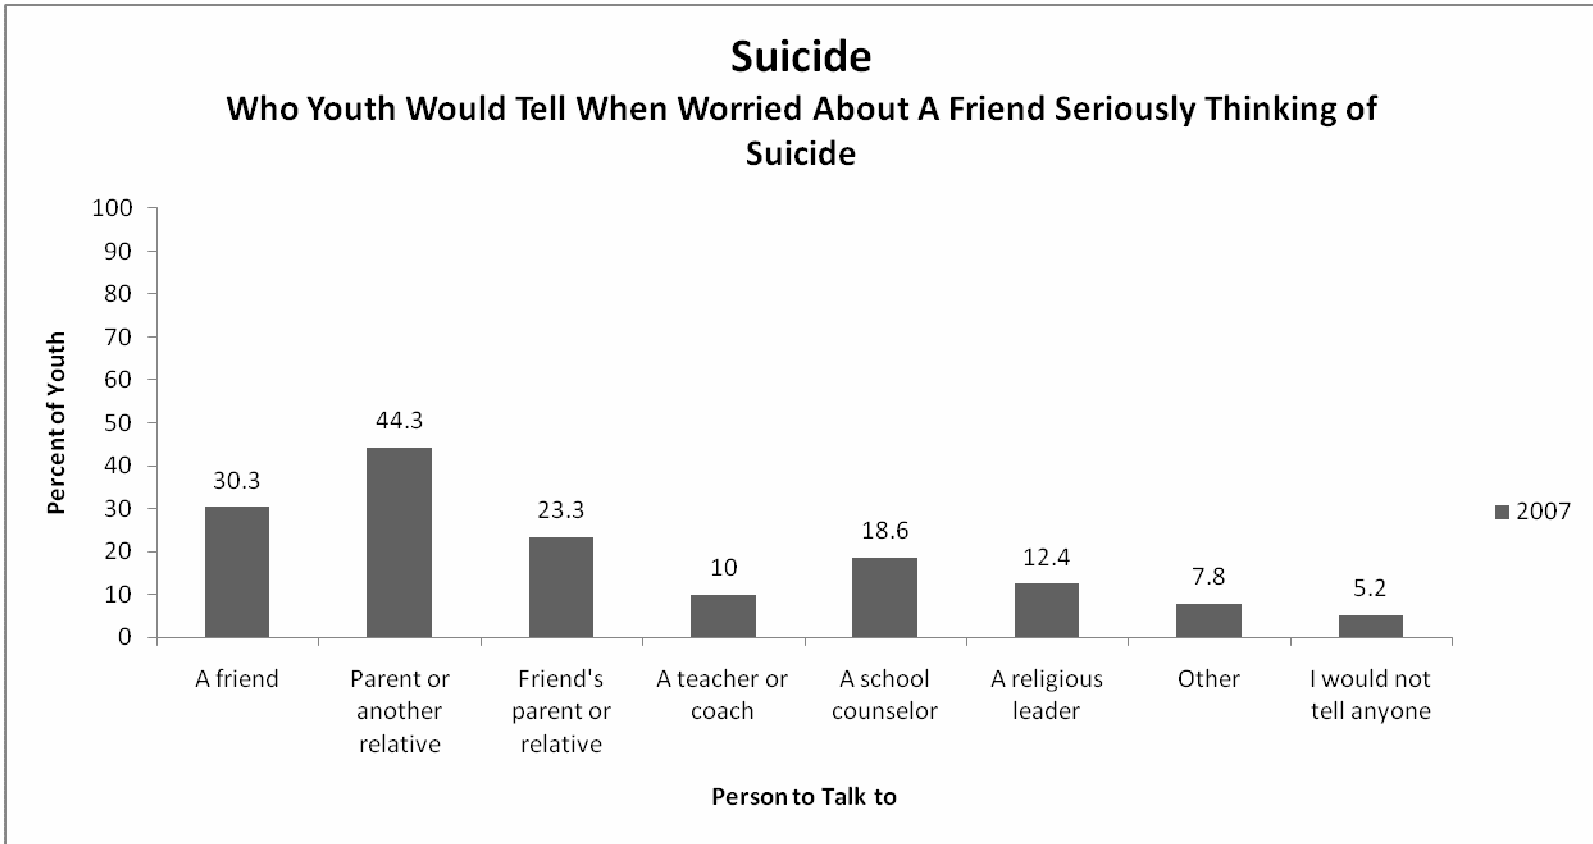

Source: Rockingham County/Harrisonburg Youth Survey

What the numbers and other information told us:

This question was not asked in previous years, therefore there is no 2005 data to compare.

31.4% of youth said that they would not tell anyone if they were considering suicide.

Source: Rockingham County/Harrisonburg Youth Survey

What the numbers and other information told us:

This question was not asked in previous years, therefore there is no 2005 data to compare.

The majority of youth would tell their parent or another relative (44.3%) if worried their friend was seriously thinking of suicide.